PUPPET THEATER CLASSES TO BE OFFERED AT THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

For the first time in many years classes in puppeteering will be offered this summer at The Cleveland Museum of Art. Conducted by The Sherman Puppet Theater the classes will begin June 17 and run through July 25, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Students 6 through 9 years will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays, students 10 through 16 years will meet on Wednesdays and Fridays.

The instructors will be Henry and Greta Carr Sherman, favorite Cleveland puppeteers. Their original and novel productions are approved by the Cleveland Board of Education and are well known to school children and adults alike.

The children will make their own puppets from ordinary material found around the home such as, wooden spoons, sieves, dish mops, rubber balls, and tin cans. Each child will take part in all the steps leading to a simple puppet theater production. The show will then be presented to parents at the end of the course.

Registration is open to anyone regardless of Museum membership, but will be limited in order to control the size of classes. The fee for tuition and materials is $5.00. Registration dates are June 2 through June 16, by telephone or in person, Department of Education, GA 1-7340.
